

Mentor Biography

Marta Marks attended Stephen F. Austin State University in Austin, Texas where she graduated with a degree in Communication Radio and TV in 2002. From 2002 - 2004 she worked as an associate producer at AMS picture studios. At AMS she worked with various client such as Frito Lay, Sealy and EDS on various production projects. She later went on to DNA Productions from 2004 - 2006 where she was a production coordinator on feature film Ant Bully. Ms.Marks also worked as a production manager at Natural Wellness USA from 2006 to 2010. Here she was responsible for twenty five productions and the on air TV schedule.

Marta Marks joined the Reel FX team in January of 2010 and today she is the Head of Artist Management and Recruiting and oversees the recruiting team, resource management team and the artist management team. As the head of resource management, Ms.Marks handles all of the crew casting for the animation division productions and consults on many commercial projects as well. She is frequently seen working alongside producers and production finance teams to make sure all projects are cast appropriately and within budget. In Ms. Marks' spare time she enjoys riding her horses and spending time with her family.